

6516205390.txt

I oppose the NAB petition as being anticompetitive and out of step with current efforts to foster competition in the broadcasting industry. As a consumer, I have the option to subscribe to the XM satellite service; no one is forcing me to do so. If XM wishes to provide the bandwidth for local weather and traffic, they should be entitled to do so.